

Dear FCC Commission-

I sincerely hope that you will consider my comments, both specific and generic in nature, about Sinclair's announcement/decision to be involved in politics further.

It was enough that they made a decision to not air the pictures of the fallen soliders due to politics but if you allow this documentary to air it would be a blatent miss-use of power. It seems that a canidate running for office should be re-elected or elected based on her/his credentials, integrity and further what the democratic voters want. Not what suits or serves a major corporations means. It seems common sense and I expect that you will enforce our open airwaves and the media in a situation like this. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Afterall, I think you have had a hand in this mess, I support you in cleaning it up.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.
Melissa
